

Southern Cross Tour

Day 1: Departure from Windhoek to Keetmanshoop via Rehoboth and Mariental to our destination: a beautiful lodge in the Kalahari desert. Join a scenic drive in the late afternoon.

Half-board accommodation, including a game drive.

Day 2: After breakfast, we drive south to visit the Quivertree Forest which is close to Keetmanshoop. The tour will then take us to the Fish River Canyon via Keetmanshoop and Seeheim. This canyon is known as the second largest in the world, (being topped in size only by the Colorado Grand Canyon). We will spend the night in a charming lodge close to the canyon, which is built entirely from stones found in the area.

Half-board accommodation.

Day 3: The journey takes us towards western Namibia, in the direction of Luederitz. The road passes the tiny village of Aus, where we could be as lucky as spotting a few of the wild horses that roam the area. Luederitz is a picturesque little seaport with a rich colonial history, set right in the Namib desert. You will be surprised to find its old world charme preserved.

Accommodation at ‚Hotel zum Sperrgebiet‘, breakfast included.

Day 4: After an extensive breakfast we'll attempt a sightseeing tour of Luederitz. Afterwards it's time to pay the famous Diaz Cross a visit. The rest of the day is at your disposal.

Accommodation at ‚Hotel zum Sperrgebiet‘, breakfast included.

Day 5: In the morning we will explore the ‚ghost town‘ Kolmanskuppe. The ruins that have largely been covered by sand, are all that remains of a once thriving diamond settler town. From Kolmanskuppe we take the road via Aus and Helmeringhausen to a guestfarm in the area.

Accommodation including dinner and breakfast at La Vallée.

Day 6: After breakfast we depart for our next sightseeing must: The Duwisib Castle. A unique desert find. Afterwards we'll drive to our next lodge close to Sesriem (Sossusvlei). In the late afternoon a scenic drive to the petrified dunes is being offered.

Accommodation including dinner and breakfast at Namib - Naukluff Lodge.

Day 7: We take an early-morning excursion to the magnificent Sossusvlei, home to some of the highest dunes in the world. Afterwards We head back towards Windhoek and take a moment to enjoy the splendid views of the Spreetshoogte Pass as a farewell to our ‚Southern Cross‘ tour...
